Hi Mike,

We have some good news about the crisis on our streets: homelessness is down 5% in the City of Los Angeles. We gathered with our County partners this week to release the results of the 2018 Homeless Count, with numbers that show real progress on our efforts to help people find a home. Our work continues; we will press relentlessly forward together until every Angeleno has a safe place to sleep at night.

Here's a quick rundown of what we've been up to this week.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

- SIGNED AND SEALED: Putting the city budget into action
- PROTECTING OUR PROGRESS: Joining Gov. Brown to stand up for SB1
- READY FOR TAKEOFF: Big improvements at LAX Terminals 2 and 3
- STEP UP: Calling on the state to strengthen help for homeless Californians
- ED24: Speeding up the opening of homeless shelters
- ORANGE GLOW: Lighting City Hall for gun violence awareness
- ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE: Honoring the history and legacy of outstanding Angelenos
- FREEWAY FLOW: Easing congestion at the 405/110 interchange
- PLAY BALL: Celebrating a beautiful new Little League field
- REMEMBERING RFK: Fifty years later

Thanks for reading! As always, I'd love to get your feedback on how we are doing on Facebook & Twitter.
